Introduction to Children's Book Illustration

Join Lea Lyon, published children's book illustrator and art teacher, to get an overview of the business of children's book illustration. Learn how to create characters, tell a story with pictures, portray the same characters in different settings and activities and make the reader want to turn the page. Discover ideas for breaking into this wonderful career. Exercises to practice your new skills. You may use your own stories or a classic as a basis for creating a picture book. $10 materials fee. See Lea's work at www.lealyon.com.

Beginning Watercolor Painting

Have you ever wanted to try watercolor painting but felt you "couldn't draw a straight line?" Straight lines not required -that's why we have rulers! Come and join children's book illustrator and painting teacher Lea Lyon to try watercolor. You'll see how much fun you can have expressing yourself in paint. Materials will be provided, as well as instruction and inspiration. Still life set-ups and landscape photos will be available, or paint from your imagination.

$10 material fee paid to the instructor.
